SIGHTS OF THE CITY

In addition to the United Nations, New York offers an endless list of things to see: special districts, old buildings, giant skyscrapers. Some highlights are described below, along with a list of guided tours.

Places to Visit

CHINATOWN, a picturesque area of about seven square blocks in lower Manhattan bounded by the Bowery, Mulberry and Canal Streets, is one of the largest Chinese communities in the country. The Chinatown Museum is at 7 Mott Street. Admission: adults, 35 cents, weekends, 50 cents; children, 25 cents.

greenwich village, a 1½-square-mile area contained within 14th Street, Broadway, Canal Street and the Hudson River, is still a gathering place for young artists and writers, but it is also a charming residential district and the ater-and-club area. Each spring and fall there is a Washington Square Outdoor Art Exhibit, and there is folk singing almost every summer Sunday afternoon at the Washington Square fountain.

TIMES SQUARE, formed by the intersection of Broadway and Seventh Avenue and bounded by 42nd and 47th Streets, is the heart of New York's entertainment area. The Square also abounds in nickel arcades, dance halls and bargain stores. The Times Square Information Center offers information to visitors. Open weekdays, 10 a.m. to 9 p.m.; Sundays, 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.

ROCKEFELLER CENTER, West side of Fifth Avenue between 48th and 51st Streets, is the world's largest privately owned business complex, with 17 buildings covering 15 acres. It has four acres of roof gardens, an outdoor skating pond, theaters, and approximately 1,000 tenants employing about 40,000 people. Tours take in many of the highlights, ending with a trip to the 70th-floor Observation Roof of the RCA Building. Daily, 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Admission: adults, $1.75; children under 12, 95 cents.

CENTRAL PARK, 59th to 110th Streets between Fifth Avenue and Central Park West, is 840 acres in size—larger than the Principality of Monaco—with many miles of paths, a skating rink, two rowing lakes, a model yachting pond, an outdoor theater, scheduled events of all kinds, and a zoo.

LINCOLN CENTER, Broadway and 65th Street, consists of 14 acres on the West Side of Manhattan devoted to the performing arts. Two buildings are now completed, Philharmonic Hall and the New York State Theater. The Visitors' Services office conducts daily tours, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Admission: adults, $1.25; children, 75 cents.

coney island, a large and famous amusement and beach area in Brooklyn, offers all kinds of rides and amusements. The beach and boardwalk are open the year round; the rides are open from noon to midnight on weekends from Palm Sunday to mid-May, and daily spring and summer. Admission varies.

Buildings to See

FRAUNCES TAVERN, Pearl and Broad Streets, is Manhattan's oldest building, constructed in 1719; within it General George Washington bade his officers farewell at the Revolution's end. It is still operated, under lease, as a restaurant. The building is owned by the Sons of the Revolution in the State of New York; this organization maintains a museum in the tavern. The museum is open Monday through Friday, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.; Saturdays, 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Closed Sundays and major holidays; closed Saturdays in July.

TRINITY CHURCH, Broadway and Wall

You'd think even one New York restaurant with good food and low prices would be pretty hard to find.

Schraffis

has 33 of them. And here's where you'll find them:

You've seen them in magazines—

Now see Armstrong rooms in reality!

Visit the "Armstrong World of Interior Design" at 60 West 49th St., Rockefeller Center, Mon.-Sat., 10-6. Free.

For years, the Armstrong rooms appearing in magazines have been widely admired. These rooms are trend setters in interior design. Thousands of home owners have written for reprints, for advice on decorating, for information on floors, ceilings, and furnishings.

Now you can see the Armstrong rooms in full-scale reality, too. "The Armstrong World of Interior Design" presents ten exciting new rooms, containing ideas from all over the world. Here color is used, space divided, furnishings chosen in a bold, refreshing way. Here you will find decorating ideas to help you see your home in a completely fresh light. Go early to this Armstrong display; you'll probably want to go again.

Bring your camera, too.

Armstrong

Street, houses New York City's oldest congregation, dating back to 1697. The present building was dedicated in 1846. In the churchyard are buried such famous Americans as Alexander Hamilton and Robert Fulton. Open Sunday through Friday, 7 a.m. to 6 p.m.; Saturdays, 7 a.m. to 4 p.m.

FEDERAL HALL NATIONAL MEMORIAL, Wall and Nassau Streets, is built on the site where George Washington was inaugurated first President of the United States. The present structure, built in 1842 to house federal offices, stands in the center of the Wall Street financial district. The building was declared a National Historic Site on May 26, 1939. Open Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Closed weekends and on major holidays.

SAINT PAUL'S CHAPEL, Broadway and Fulton Street, is the only church building in Manhattan that antedates the American Revolution. Erected in 1766, it is still in use. George Washington worshiped here. Open daily, 7:15 a.m. to 5:45 p.m.

OLD MERCHANT'S HOUSE, 29 East Fourth Street, between Lafayette Street and the Bowery, is the only 19th Century Greek Revival-style town house left in New York that remains exactly as it was more than 100 years ago. Open Tuesday through Saturday, 11 a.m. to 5 p.m.; Sundays and holidays, 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. Closed Mondays. Admission: 50 cents.

EMPIRE STATE BUILDING, Fifth Avenue and 34th Street, is the world's tallest building, 1,472 feet high. There are two observatories, on the 86th and 102nd floors; from the uppermost on clear days visitors can see 80 miles. Open every day, 9:30 a.m. to midnight. Adults, $1.50:children.75 cents.

SAINT PATRICK'S CATHEDRAL, Fifth Avenue between 50th and 51st Streets, is one of the finest Gothic structures in the United States. The building's architectural features include 71 stained-glass windows and 17 side altars. Open weekdays, 6 a.m. to 10 p.m.; Sundays, 5:30 a.m. to 10 p.m.

CATHEDRAL OF SAINT JOHN THE DIVINE, Amsterdam Avenue and 112th Street, will be the largest Gothic church in the world when it is finished—around 2000. Construction of this Episcopal cathedral began in 1892; features include the 17-ton bronze doors, the 40-foot Great Rose Window, and 14 chapels. Open daily, 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. Tours four times daily on weekdays, twice on Sundays.

GRANT'S TOMB, Riverside Park at West 122nd Street, is the burial place of Ulysses Simpson Grant, commander of the Union Army in the Civil War. In two reliquary rooms are Civil War battle flags and memorials. Open daily, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Conducted Tours

By boat, the Circle Line, Pier 83 at West 42nd Street and the Hudson River, makes three-hour voyages around Manhattan Island. The company also maintains a ferry service to the Statue of Liberty from Battery Park. Fare: around Manhattan, adults, $2.75; children under 12, $1.25. To the Statue of Liberty, adults, 80 cents; children under 12, 40 cents.

Staten Island ferries leave every few minutes from the southern tip of Manhattan. Fare: 5 cents each way.

By bus, American Sightseeing, 168 West 46th Street; Blue Line Sightseeing, 116 West 48th Street; Crossroads Sightseeing, 1572 Broadway; Gray Line New York Tours, West Side Airline Terminal, 42nd Street at Tenth Avenue; Manhattan Sightseeing, 109 West 49th Street; and Times Square Sightseeing, 206 West 43rd Street, conduct tours ranging from trips through Chinatown to deluxe visits to New York night clubs. Fares and admissions: $3.00 to $24.

By helicopter. New York Airways, Wall Street Heliport, East River, Pier 6 at South Street, offers 10-minute rides above Manhattan by reservation. Fare: $5.00 per seat (two children under 12 go at a single rate).

while you're in the city, visit

ROCKEFELLER CENTER

NEW YORK'S FOCAL POINT

Towering out of the heart of Manhattan, this intriguing city within a city is the home of great entertainment—Radio City Music Hall, the NBC-TV network where you can see programs actually being produced, and a host of other attractions. Be sure to visit the fascinating exhibit halls, the excellent restaurants, and the smart shops of all kinds. One of the architectural marvels of the world, the Center is a breathtaking sight at any time of year. Get acquainted by taking a Guided Tour including the top of the Center, with its 50-mile view in all directions. It's a wonderful adventure.

Visit the Tower of Light you'll see the brightest show on earth

The 12-billion-candlepower beam rising from the Tower of Light is brighter than 50 fully illuminated Yankee Stadiums. It lights your way to the Fair—and to "The Brightest Show on Earth."

Under that beam of light you'll be treated to a spectacular musical show about the wonders of electric power and light. You'll take a free and fun-filled 25-minute ride on the golden revolving magic carpet, and be entertained by a cast of electric animated figures that are sure to please and delight your whole family.

So follow the Tower of Light to "The Brightest Show on Earth," presented by investor-owned electric power and light companies from every corner of America. You can't miss it.
